

IACC LAW ENFORCEMENT TRAINING

ENFORCEMENT THROUGH EDUCATION

INTERNATIONAL ANTICOUNTERFEITING COALITION

Providing law enforcement with tools and resources to fight fakes.

For more than 30 years, our globally-renowned program has connected law enforcement to brand representatives, allowing for more efficient brand authentication when out in the field.

Thousands of law enforcement officials around the world have participated in our training programs including:

- U.S. Customs & Border Protection
- U.S. Homeland Security Investigations
- U.S. National Intellectual Property Rights Center
- FBI Academy Quantico, Virginia
- Major police departments including New York, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Miami and many more
- Federal Law Enforcement Training Center
- Police, customs, prosecutors and judges in Latin America (including Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Dominican Republic, Guatemala, Mexico, and Panama)
- Dubai Customs and Police
- Guardia di Finanza (Italy)

PARTICIPATE TODAY!

Establish strong, direct ties with law enforcement officers on the frontlines of the fight against fakes.

Educate law enforcement officers to recognize counterfeit items for detention, seizure and forfeiture.

Network and learn from other participating brands.

IACC Law Enforcement Training Apps

The IACC Law Enforcement Training App complements our training program by providing law enforcement with relevant tools to enhance their IP protection efforts and to connect instantly with brands. The App contains training manuals, crucial company contacts for participating brands and national and state laws.

Member and non-member brands are encouraged to participate and submit information. To maintain security and confidentiality, the contents are only accessible to law enforcement.

The App is available in the U.S. and in Latin America (in Spanish and Portuguese) and are used by hundreds of law enforcement in these areas. Stay tuned for the European version.
